If an alternative cannot be provided, a refund of fees paid for tuition and/or accommodation will be offered but St Giles does not accept liability for further compensation which exceeds the total fees paid.

St Giles (and associated third party suppliers) reserve the right to refuse to accept, to admit onto the premises or cancel a student's course or accommodation due to overriding health and safety concerns, or in cases where we or the accommodation provider cannot make reasonable provisions to facilitate their learning needs or for their personal care.

St Giles will not be responsible for the non-performance of any contractually agreed obligations, if they are unable to take place due to an act of Force Majeure. Such causes shall include incidents that are outside of our reasonable control, which include, but shall not be limited, to act of government, war, threat of war, riot, civil strife, industrial dispute, terrorist activity, natural or nuclear disaster, unusually adverse weather conditions and infectious diseases. COVID 19 is one such infectious disease which is to be considered as a case of Force Majeure.

In occurrences of such incidents, St Giles endeavours to offer the best alternative arrangements, dates or venues available, including online tuition, or should an alternative be unable to be offered, a refund of fees paid for tuition and/or accommodation but does not accept liability for further compensation which exceeds the total fees paid. St Giles does not accept liability for further claims for compensation including but not limited to stress or loss of enjoyment.

St Giles will do its utmost to comply with public health restrictions related to the spread of infectious diseases and will not be held liable for any non performance of contractually agreed obligations unable to be carried out as result of such efforts. St Giles requires it's students and Overseas Partners to do their utmost to comply with public health policies in the UK.
